“ Debbie and Kevin, I'm so sorry your loss. I'm so glad that we got to see Aunt Angie when we were in New Orleans back in December. I know she's happy now to be with Uncle Sal. Praying for you both during this sad time. Love Cindy, Ty, Madison and Mallory Tyler

“ Aunt Angie will be very much missed and in my heart forever. Even though I did not see her often, and mostly at New Years, she was a delight to be with. She always had a smile and happy to be with everyone. I have fond memories as a child when Angie was just a teenager and her and her girlfriends would take me to the movies with them. We always reminisced about the time she had her friend bleach my hair and I had an allergic reaction. We laughed and laughed to think of it. Most of all, she was so beautiful and enjoyed seeing everyone at New Years. She was so proud that she fit into a beautiful dress this past New Year's Eve and looked so good. I hope to share this beautiful memory of her below. She brought life and happiness to the party and will be especially missed every New Years. I know she is with God and now and at peace. And I know I will see her again.

“ My nanny's house always smelled like delicious food. She always tried to feed me, even when I wasn't hungry. She always had a smile on her face. I will never forget your laugh. I miss you more than you will ever know. Love ya. Kelly Lupo Kildahl

“ Aunt Angie will be missed, but we do not sorrow as those who have no hope, because we know that we will see her again. One thing I can say about aunt Angie is that I believe she had genuine faith in the Lord Jesus. I know that she believed that Jesus is the the Christ, the savior of the world. I know she also believed that He is the resurrection and the life, and I'm sure that she put her trust in Him for eternal life. All of her friends and family can rest assured that she is now in the presence of Jesus where there will be no more pain, no more sorrow, no more suffering, no more death, because she has obtained eternal life. She has finished the race, she has kept the faith and has received the prize which is the Crown of Life.

So for every friend or family member that believes in Christ, you have the same destiny, the same Eternal hope, and the promise that you will see her again.

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved. That is a promise from God that only comes through faith in Jesus Christ.
