

Clare Rita Allen Schreiber

June 6, 2020

Clare Rita Allen Schreiber earned her wings Saturday, June 6, 2020 at the young age of 94. She was a fourth generation New Orleanian and McMinn graduate, class of 1941. Clare Rita was a true Matriarch and watched over her family as the Oaks watched over our city. She had a love like the Mississippi River coursing through her veins and was as sweet as a Gardenia bush in full bloom. Clare Rita was an avid baker and had a passion for traveling. She was predeceased by her husband Nicholas J Schreiber Jr. and her daughter Nickie Ann McAcy. She is survived by her son Brian Schreiber; her grandchildren Jeffrey McAcy, Jamie McAcy Ratcliff, Robin Schreiber, and Julie McAcy Anselmo; as well as her great-grandchildren Corbin Melancon, Kaylen McAcy, Jack Ratcliff, Nicholas Ratcliff, Clara Schreiber, and Jemma Schreiber. Services will be held this Saturday, August 22, 2020 at St. Pius X Church on Spanish Fort Blvd. Visitation begins at 10:00 AM and Mass begins at 11:00 AM with a private burial to follow. Arrangements entrusted to Serenity Funeral Home, Covington, LA. Condolences and tributes can be posted at www.serenitycovington.com

Comments

“ Mrs. Clare Rita and Mr. Nick were dear friends of my grandparents, Norman and Evelyn Cook. I attended many plays at Tulane Summer Lyric with my grandparents and the Schreibers and kept in touch with her for a long while through Christmas cards over the years. She was a special friend to my grandparents and they loved her very much. Very much like my Granny, she was a true southern lady. I will keep all of you in my prayers.

-Jennifer Cook Vaccaro (N. Craig Cook's daughter)

Jennifer Vaccaro - August 20, 2020 at 07:23 PM

“ Sorry to hear about Claire she was a dear friend that I met in the nursing home and talked to her all the time. I know how much she loved you Jamie i'll Keep you in my prayers. Jackie B

jackie - August 20, 2020 at 01:27 PM