“ Mo, what can I say other than you will be greatly missed. I would say my memories of you will be that insatiable smile. You could brighten a room with just a smile. You were warm with wisdom beyond your years. Many will shed tears and memories on the day we say goodbye. But this is not goodbye, its until we meet again. Thank you for sharing your life and love. You have given all of us a gift that we will carry in our hearts . You are truly an angel. You will remain forever in our hearts. Rest in peace dear brother in law.

“ I didn't get the honor of meeting mo. But i want to send my condolences to jordan and hailee and family. I heard great things about mo from brent which is my son in law.

“ Mo was a passionate soul , passionate about family and passionate about life . Our last conversation pertained to is love and pride in his children . How humbled he was to see them blossom into their own . He thanked God for his hand in their life and how his family always looked after each other even if they had differences like we all do . He knew quite a bit about the bible and in his own way tried to live to honor what he believed to be true . He was sincere and would leave you his genuine thoughts regarding a matter holding no punches but wanting to help from his perspective seeing you asked . He will be missed for so many reasons by so many . My heart felt sympathy for all who share in this grief this day . God Bless and Big Hugs
